"Braemar Cottage" The Green, High Coniscliffe, Darlington.
What a fantastic location, a dog walkers paradise and a beautiful fully renovated and extended property, you won't be disappointed, WOW!

This delightful Grade II listed home has been lovingly and tastefully renovated to a high standard combining convenience and modern living whilst retaining period features with an abundance of character throughout.
The new Biomass wood pellet heating system has added the benefits of potentially lower heating costs as well as being environmentally friendly. With new wiring throughout, a full width extension to the rear fitted with underfloor heating and bi-fold doors you will certainly enjoy this room overlooking the huge garden and countryside beyond.

With four spacious reception areas on the ground floor and a convenient W/C downstairs, this property provides ample space for the family and is an entertainers dream home! There are also four well-appointed bedrooms on the first floor to ensure plenty of room for family and guests alike, whilst the family bathroom and ensuite add convenience to daily life.

There are three standout features to this home.

- Beautiful Village location
- Quality pub and restaurant
- Modern full width extension to the rear
- Dual access, with plenty of off street parking
- Dog walker paradise, with the River Tees meandering past
- Grade 2 listed characterful property
- Large garden
- Rural views to the rear
